WESTERNER

IN 1519, THE BOLD and inspiring Cortez and his Spaniards reached the valley where Mexico City lies today.

There he met and conquered the great Montezuma, king of the Aztecs, Emperor of the Nahua nation, protector of a huge and wondrous fortune.

The successful expedition of Cortez is symbolic of the four years a student at West spends, leaving triumphant at graduation, having gained the riches of knowledge.

Only the intriguing legends and colorful drawings of the vanished Aztec culture, which are in interpreted throughout the book, remains. A huge calendar carved on 20 tons of stone is the historic relic represented on the cover of the 1956 Westerner. In the center is the face of the Sun God, which can be compared to a year's activities at West. The concentric circles of symbols tell the Aztec myths of the creation and destruction of the world.

Characters from "Remarkable Incident At Carson Corners," Dick Johnson and Dick Davich, inspect defective school buildings.

Accused janitor and leading actor, Dick Davich, breaks down in the courtroom during one of the more dramatic scenes of the all-school play.

Mr. Gale Nims, Faculty Director.

"THE REMARKABLE INCIDENT AT CARSON CORNERS" was the first play put on by the dramatic department. A tense story of an innocent maintenance man accused of murder was excellently acted out by West thespians and student directed by Kay Kelly. A delightful musical was the second production. The well-known "Merry Widow" boasted a cast of numerous vocalizing students and was professionally directed by Carol Beley. LEFT: Another work of this busy department was the talent-filled dramatic assembly. Jay Cohen and Miriam Hamburger portrayed the early morning husband-wife radio program.

The major part of the cast of the "Merry Widow" vocalize during one of the many music-filled scenes.

DRAMA

Can Can Cuties, Sharon Farris, Lois Beckett, Becky Campbell, and Dixina Price, spiced the show with their lively dancing.

The leading man, Stephen Bond, sings to the merry widow, Jeanie Stowe.

Always on the job are these men behind the scenes, Fred Rivers, Bill Fisher and Lerry Popkin.

GINA CHRISTOULIAS: With her smiling face and always shining eyes Gina Christoulias, one of West's two exchange students. Crossed our threshold this past fall with many a strange thought in her mind. Before leaving Athens, her far off home land, this Grecian lovely thought of America as a country of gangsters and bright night life. The idea that dazzled her most was that we really have cowboys and Indians in Arizona. Gina will embark for home this June with a mind packed full of joys and exciting adventures.

PETER WURSTER: Meet Peter Wurster, a typical teenage boy. Pete, our other exchange student, hails from Ebhausen, Germany where he and his identical twin, attend high school. Pete loves this land of the West and especially enjoys West High's friendliness toward him. This prime example of manhood will return to his country and finish his education followed by joining in business with his father who owns a wholesale furniture store.

JUDY PHILLIPS: Judy became a Pariesienne for her first month abroad and a French country girl for the last, spending two weeks in the heart of Paris, another two weeks at Esbly, and the rest of her time in the south of France at Loyn with Helen Chaiere, a West High exchange student last year, and her family.

RONNIE RYMER: Ronnie visited in Menden, Germany where he spent his time, swimming, bicycle riding, giving talks to his English classes at schools, and visiting their dances.

RENE LARRIVA: For two exciting months Rene visited schools, learned about customs and languages, spoke to German students, and went sightseeing from Amsterdam to Paris.

ANNE SHERER: Anne was a resident of Berlin, Germany, where she spent eight weeks with Karen Alexander, also an exchange student to West last year. Anne had many an exciting experience while attending the schools and different social functions.

In background is Bird halfback Eugene Peterson (32).

WEST 41 — CATALINA 6 . . . . Breather! Coach Braasch's high stepping Thunderbirds opened their 1955 season with a resounding 41-6 victory over Catalina's Trojans. West 26 - Camelback . . . Using a heavier line to advantage, the Flock banged Camelback's flashy Spartans around at will for convincing 26-14 victory. MESA - 14 - WEST 13. . . . Lucky! With Lady Luck dealing from the bottom of the deck, the Jackrabbits hopped by the Maroon and White with one conversion.

WEST 19 — SOUTH MOUNTAIN 6 . . . Giant Killers! A fitting term for the Rebel's who found there isn't a lot of truth in the old saying, "The South shall rise again." WEST 21 — NORTH 7 . . . At Last! Playing in a new home stadium before some 6500 fans composing the largest high school crowd of the year, the Westerners christened their new gridiron with the first victory ever achieved over a Mustang in the seven year history of Thunderbird Town with a long awaited 21-7 win.

Quarter back Ray Mauer is trapped by a pair of winging Glendale Cardinal's during West's 20-0 rout of the Redbirds. Glendale's Charles Moore (47), and Russell Steiner move into position in the background.

WEST 20 — GLENDALE 0 . . . Avenged! The Westerners had a lot of revenge in this 20-0 win, namely the 26-25 loss they suffered at the hands of the Redbirds in 1954. WEST 33 — TUCSON 14 . . . Whew! An over confident bunch of Westerners journeyed to the 'Old Pueblo,' and got the surprise of their lives, with a halftime lead of 14-13. Thunderbirds finally nailed the pesky Badgers' hide down, in the second half, 33-14.

ABOVE: Whambo! . . . Several North Mustangs including John Mackler (18), Bob Grey (49), Tom Schulz (20), and Dean Anthony (40), drop Westerner halfback Larry Nathanson (42) and Ronnie Matock (48), tries to pull Nathanson away from Mackler's grasp.

MARY'S 7 . . . City Champs! Nineteen Thunderbirds pulled on their Maroon and White jerseys for the last time, as the Westerners trounced the lowly Knights 25-7 for the City Championship.

DOUBLE AA — TOURNAMENT

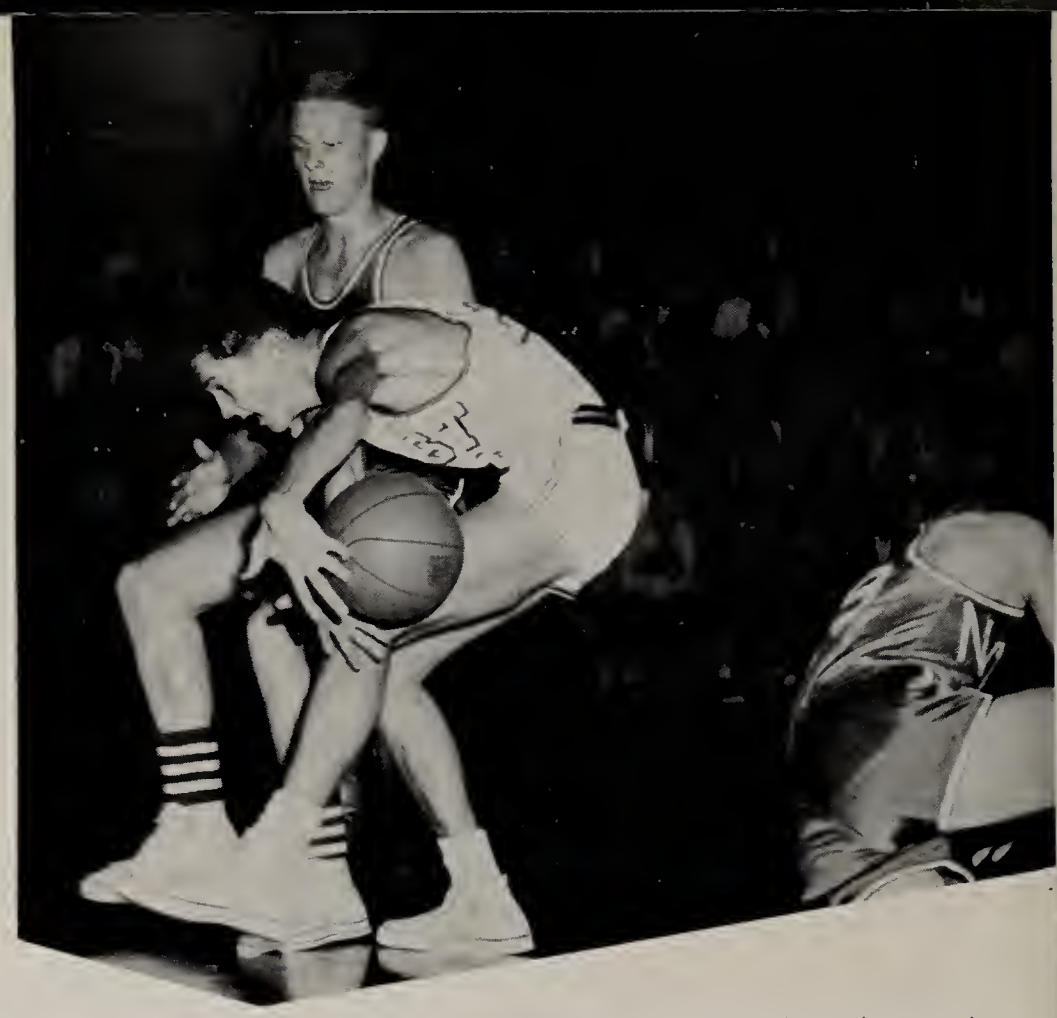
| North | 56 |



With dreams of power, and a Rosy future in sight, West High's cage team pryed the lid off the 1955-56 cage season under the watchful eye of mentor Ray Brahams. Opening conference play early in December, the Westerners won a heart stopping 53-51 thriller from Glendale's Cardinals. Things weren't to remain a bed of roses for long however, as the Flocksters realized the facts of basketball the hard way, taking it on the chin from Mesa 52-46, and North High 55-42. Santa Claus paid a pre-Christmas visit to Thunderbird Town, and gifted the Brahamsmen with victories over South Mountain 53-48, Yuma 53-50, and St. Mary's 57-48. New Year's eve must have left the Flock hoopsters with misty clouded minds, as they played in a dense Los Angeles smog, falling before Camelback's Spartans 60-32. The smog lifted the next evening as the Thunderbirds mauled Tucson 71-58.

LEFT: Flyin' High . . . T-Bird cagers Jim Mason (13) and Gordon Smith (24) latch onto a rebound in the hoop season opener with Glendale which the hawk-eyed Westerners won 53-51. Watching tentatively are West's Milton Naylor (11), Danny Anstett (23), Bert Turner (behind Anstett)_ and Cardinal's Bill Aaron (3), and Kent Briggs (15 in foreground). ABOVE: Stubborn Mule . . . Mustang Van Fritz, refused to allow Westerner Dan Anstett (23) have his way at this moment during the Nags 55-42 conquest of Brahamsmen. On-floor is North's Wendell Clutz (19). LOWER LEFT: Ugg . . . St. Mary's Jose Guadarama (10), and West Dan Anstett (23) struggle over an elusive ball, while Knight's Bob Schrader (15), Mike Rayan (12), watch hopefully. T-Birds Milton Naylor (11), and Jim Mason (13), seem to have found something interesting in the hardwood they're gazing at. BELOW: Zingo . . . Arm-waving Danny Anstett bats the ball from Yuma's Tom Skevington (19) as T-Bird Gordon Smith (24) and Thom Blohm (18) of Yuma gander at proceedings.

ABOVE: Gimme . . . Thunderbird Jim Mason (13), appears to be begging Glendale's Frank Laungram (12), and Kent Briggs to let loose of the ball. Peeping over Launghram's shoulder is West's Dan Anstett (23), and Eric Karson (12). AT RIGHT: Gasp . . . West's John Nickum (21), Allan Holmes of P.U., Bill McEowen (32), Gordon Smith (24), and Coyote Steve Crookston (26) with mixed expressions as the ball drops through the netting. BELOW: No. 40 . . . Union's Darnell Haney (35) dunks his 40 point of the night during the Coyotes 91-49 annihilation of the Thunderbirds. Watching Haney score the bucket that set a new city scoring mark are Flocksters Dan Anstett (23), Milton Naylor (11), Coyotes Alfred Anderson (24), Delbert Hodge (31), and Steve Crookston (26).

A real blizzard of a snowstorm set in at mid-January, as Phoenix Union snowbound the Westerners 62-34, but the Flock apparently left hibernation, and thawed out enough to snow-ball Catalina 56-45. Ol' Man Winter wasn't through yet! He returned to Thunderbird Town and put the Brahamsmen in the deep freeze good and proper, as they lost to Amphitheater 58-52, Glendale 54-47, North 69-60, and Mesa 55-45 before the T-Birds awoke from their long winters sleep to belt St. Mary's into the land of golden dreams 59-54. With St. Valentine's fast approaching, the Westerners were presented with a 58-36 spaning by Yuma. However, the Birds returned the favor, slamming Pueblo 58-44, and Tucson 63-43. With March winds just outside the door, the Thunderbirds knelt before the chopping block twice, as Amphi trimmed their tail-feathers 69-54, and Phoenix Union behead the smarting Birds 91-49. Going into the AA tournament as a defendent under-dog, the Brahamsmen were nearly blown out of the U of A's Bear Down Gym, losing to Mesa for the third time 46-30, but they returned to promise the next afternoon whipping Amphi 56-52 to enter consolation finals against North's Mustangs where they were toppled 56-46.

AT RIGHT: Sickum Fritz . . . Northerner Jim Conley (11), attempts to help his team-mate Van Fritz (Dark uniform) in his struggle with Dan Anstett (24), and Milton Naylor (11), for a rebound in the Nags 55-42 victory over the Birds. Watching to see that nothing comes out his way is T-Bird Jim Mason (13), and North's Bob Kober in background.

JV

FUTURE WONDERS . . . With a job well done, Coach Fred Roche's J.V. hoopsters look toward future varsity competition after compiling a very impressive 16-4 record. Front Row: Dan Peralta, Larry Hankins, Don Aycock, Gary McIntire, Bill Allison, and Buzz Hedges, manager. Row 2: Coach Fred Roche, Bob Vincent, Ronnie Durham, Charlie Henderson, Myron Speaker, Steve Burns, Lyle Kelly, and Dick Jones.

FROSH

ABOVE: Strikeee . . . Mesa catcher Sam Ellis (6), swings and misses as receiver Fred Halberg latches onto the elusive horsehide.

ABOVE: Can O' Corn . . . Shortstop Allen Thron plants himself under a mile-high infield play during the Westerners 4-3 extra-inning conquest of the Mesa Jackrabbits.

BASEBALL

BELOW: Opening Pitch . . . Stellar moundsman Dave Sharp rockets the opening pitch of the 1956 baseball season plate-ward against the Mesa Jackrabbits.

BELOW: Scampering Bird . . . Speedy outfielder Milton Naylor slides safely back onto first base as Mesa's Norman Shill awaits a delayed pick-off throw from catcher Sam Ellis.

TERRIFIC, SENSATIONAL, masterful, and all such fancy adjectives have been used to describe Coach Bill Munson's 1956 diamond crew, which without a doubt in anyone's mind, is the greatest edition in the seven year history of Thunderbird Town.

Opening their 1956 slate against Mesa's Jackrabbits, the T-Birds captured their opener in the extra innings 4-3, and the following week-end traveled to the Old Pueblo, and clobbered Amphi 11-10. South Mountain's Rebels were next in line to fall before the Westerner's blazing bats, by a 12-5 tally. North's Mustangs did plenty of bucking, but they met their match 7-6, and Camelback was nearly blasted into eternity, 23-5.

With the remainder of their schedule still ahead of them at annual press time, the T-Birds are fast making their long awaited dream come true, the State Championship of class AA.

SEPTEMBER

COUNTER-CLOCKWISE: Struttin' their stuff were "Westerners" at the first all school dance of the year.

Always supplying the needs of these Thunderbirds is West's Bookstore.

Off to another of West's talent filled assembly were these many entertainment seeking students.

"FIGHT 'EM TEAM, FIGHT 'EM" were words rallied to this year's football team by gridiron enthusiasts.

OCTOBER

COUNTER-CLOCKWISE: Vivacious artists work busily on dance decorations for "MARDI GRAS."

Out to win at first game of the season with Catalina, was West's promising football players.

Proud parents show enthusiasm of students at West's annual P.T.A. OPEN HOUSE.

"GET WELL SOON, IKE" was the message displayed by Mrs. Margaret Salmon, Jack Geiger, and Dottie Allison.

NOVEMBER

"HOORAH FOR WEST HIGH" was chanted by students at one of West's football pep rallies.

HATS ON TO DERBY WEEK!

Acting their parts in the THANKSGIVING ASSEMBLY were Bill Pogue, Sherry Philips, Carol Beley.

DECEMBER

CLOCKWISE: Dottie Allison, Homecoming Queen and her four attendants were revealed to the Student Body during elaborate halftime ceremonies at the Homecoming football game with St. Mary's.

Delivering Christmas gifts to our adopted families are these enthusiastic student benefactors.

Three of West's bright-eyed freshmen sort out gifts under the Christmas tree in the lobby for the adopted families.

With the gay spirit of Christmas in the air Thunderbird students produced another of their spectacular Christmas assemblies.

Nine of West High lovelies who were chosen as candidates for Salad Bowl Priness pose with pert Denise Rowland, Thunderbird's Salad Bowl Princess.

CENTER: Mr. Thorpe put a television set together and had his Physics classes televised.

JANUARY

HER HIGHNESS

FEBRUARY

CLOCKWISE: Clever and smart were Dixie Price and Dana Wells, winners of West's annual SWEATER DANCE. Thinking of future vocations was stressed by CAREER DAY speakers to Thunderbird Town students. BERMUDA BELLES AND BEAUX, Jerry Carlson, Jo Ann Roberts; Barbara Gregory, Ebert Fike (first prize couple); Sheryl Hitchcock, Ken Simpson; were clad in most original outfits at the Bermuda Bound dance. TAFFY, TAFFY AND MORE TAFFY, was the cry of candy enthusiasts at senior girl's Hi-Teens Taffy Pull.

MARCH

CLOCKWISE: opposite page, below: Many a peppy Thunderbird's back ached after the three week CHEERLEADING TRYOUTS.

Variety spiced the PRODUCTIONS ASSEMBLY which included everything from Charleston to modern dance.

PLACING THEIR X's for Student Body officers were 88% of the students.
Yippee! cries Mr. Thomas Thorpe, one of the good sports who had to PAY THE PENALTY for not wearing western duds on Rodeo Day. Star of the RODEO ASSEMBLY was West's own Jimmy Spellman and his rock n roll band. Mr. Richard Zimmerman, a real dude, and his "charming" companion, Mr. Robert Arnold, were seen along with other rip roarin' cowboys and gals at the ROMP AND STOMP. "The jig's up!" Allan Thron, left, and his trusty aids, Bill Fisher and Dana Wells, lead Mr. Serge Huff to the corral for his punishment as will Deputy Bob Day as soon as lawbreakers Don Serber and Leo Neilman finish chow.

As the sun fades in the West, the enthusiastic WESTERNERS trail out after the day's festivities for the four day Rodeo weekend.

APRIL

ABOVE: These pert models, Katie Hughes, Judy Dana, and Becky Campbell, displayed spring outfits in the GIRLS' LEAGUE FASHION SHOW. BELOW: West boasted Vogue's newest model, Kay Kelly, who won a three month contract with the fashion magazine competing with rising professionals from all over the country. LEFT: BEAR DOWN! was the cry of the University of Arizona band who performed in one of the assemblies. LOWER LEFT: Everyone seemed to have been attacked with SPRING FEVER, or, for those who qualified, Senioritis, as were these boys, relaxing during lunch.

GREAT CAESAR'S GHOST! It never pays to dare a woman, any woman! And especially never two women! While slaving hard to put up the "Big Top" to earn "free passes," Russell Duff flaunted temptation in front of the two female tigresses, Nancy Damer, and Mary Lou Kohfeldt, who swing a wicked sledge hammer, but yes! To add insult that almost brought irreparable injury, Duff had the audacity to dare them to hit his thumb. And Wham! Innocent onlooker Elaine Chiate screamed in vain, the cowardly Duff withdrew his thumb at the last second!

WITH PENCILS, clipboards, layout, and handy-dandy guides on how to produce an annual, the 1956 Westerner staff, early in September, began scheduling pictures, digging up negatives, identing photos, silk-screening section pages, and frantically meeting deadlines.

Without co-operation in every department the yearbook could never have been completed successfully. Fortunate in having a top-notch staff, we give credit to:

Carolyn Divelbess and Roberta Tweedy, the talented team who spent many an afternoon and evening designing and pasting down the layout, and the entire ART DEPARTMENT, headed by Mr. John Sherman and supervised by the art editors, who silk-screened the section pages.

Pat McCune, PHOTOGRAPHY editor, and the group of great photographers, who were always on the scene with their cameras.

Bee Buchanan, Associate editor, and the PUBLICATIONS staff, Amanda Barr, Pat Kurz, Kay Larsen, Marilyn McCrary, and Martha McKown, who were ever busy writing and checking copy, and Mr. Ross Willard, who guided that department.

Roberta Carpenter, Anita Robins, Steven Stern, and Jean Gelber, hard working Section editors, and Dick Stuart, Sports editor.

Ann Kelly, BUSINESS manager, and Melinda Rollow and Diane Rose, assistants, who along with Mr. Conrad Naegle and the ad staff, kept track of finances and edited the Ad section.

Mr. Max Connolly and Mrs. Bette Johnson, who gave their time and patience helping us complete the annual, and to JAHN-TYLER PRINTING CO. AND ARIZONA LITHO SERVICE, INC., through the ARIZONA YEARBOOK CO.

STRUBLE CO., which silk-screened the cover, and ARIZONA TRADE BINDERY, which bound the book.

The student body, faculty, and administration, who with their co-operation made the book and its contents possible.

And last, but certainly not least, our patient, understanding, aspirin-toting, sponsor, Mr. Richard Zimmerman.

As the final page went to press, this staff breathed a sigh of relief and sat back anxiously awaiting the printed product. And here it is . . . YOUR 1956 WESTERNER.

Your Co-Editors,

Sande Chiate

Nancy Smith
